

The First Tee of Aiken

Vocabulary Terms

- Object of the game of golf: To hit the ball into the hole in the fewest strokes (swings + penalties)
- Etiquette: Manners and actions used by PLAYers
- Fore!: A warning shouted to alert other PLAYers that you are about to hit the ball or have hit a ball that is headed toward them
- Stroke: The points a PLAYer gets by swinging the golf club or getting a penalty
- Penalty: When a PLAYer breaks a rule, he/she is given a penalty. The penalty is usually a stroke or two added to the score. Other penalties are sometimes given such as losing distance or losing a hole (match play).
- Habit: Actions PLAYers do so often they become automatic and can be done without thinking
- Putt: A short shot that rolls; usually done on the putting green
- Chip: A short shot that goes low in the air and has lots of roll; usually started from just off the side of the green
- Pitch: A short shot that goes high and has only a little roll; usually done from a few yards off the green when a PLAYer needs to go over something like a bunker
- Full-Swing: A big swing to hit the ball as far as the club will make it go
- Bunker: A hollow area on the golf course that is filled with sand
- Dog-leg hole: A hole where the fairway bends around a corner
- Green: The part of the golf course around a hole where the grass is cut the shortest
- Fairway: On a hole, the grass between the tee and the green (fairway grass is usually cut short).
- Hazards: An area of the golf course that creates challenges for PLAYers. These include bunkers and lakes or ponds, for example.
- Hole: 1. The small hole or cup cut into the green; 2. The part of a golf course consisting of a teeing ground, putting green, and the area in between; also, if you “hole” your ball, you have hit it into the hole on the green.
- Lie: The spot where the ball is sitting
- Out of bounds: The area of a golf course that is outside the official playing area; golf courses use white stakes or paint a white line on the ground to mark the out of bounds area.
- Range: A place where PLAYers can practice hitting balls
- Rough: The area of long grass around tees, fairways, and greens
- Teeing ground: The starting place for the hole to be played; its shape and size is a rectangular area which is defined by two club length in depth, from two tee markers
- Water hazard: A body of water on the golf course such as a lake or stream. If you hit your ball into a water hazard, you have to add penalty strokes to your score.
